

LOGOS REQUIREMENT

At Piedmont, we know that understanding the Scriptures is important to live and proclaim the gospel. We also realize how critical it is for you stay current with normative research, and the necessity of being well-equipped for your studies. That’s why we’ve partnered with Faithlife, the makers of Logos Bible Software.

Logos Bible Software is the world’s most powerful Bible study platform. Base packages include a theological library spanning reference works, ancient writings, and current biblical scholarship, while feature sets offer research tools that work together with your Logos library to make your time studying more efficient, productive, and rewarding. Learn more about Logos Bible Software by visiting their website.

All Piedmont International University seminary students pursuing a bachelor’s degree or higher are required to purchase Logos Bible Software. As a Piedmont student, you receive Logos Bible Software at 50% off the regular price, and when you graduate, you get to keep the software forever.
